

COMMON MODULE

LAW OF ARMED CONFLICT

2017

LtCol Mag. Markus BERNHART, LL.M.

The European Commission support for the production of this publication does not constitute an endorsement of the contents which reflects the views only of the authors, and the Commission cannot be held responsible for any use which may be made of the information contained therein.

Erasmus+

This publication has been financed from Erasmus+ Programme, Strategic Partnership „Creating international semester regarding military education needs for future officers in Europe”

Table of Contents

Introduction .....	2
1. Introduction to LOAC.....	3
1.1. Historical Background.....	3
1.2. Definition and Types of Armed Conflict .....	5
1.3. Relationship between LOAC and Human Rights Law .....	8
1.4. Sources of Armed Conflict .....	12
1.5. Terms and Definitions of LOAC .....	14
1.6. Examination Questions.....	17
2. Conduct of Military Operations .....	18
2.1. Basic Principles of LOAC.....	18
2.1.1. The Principle of Distinction .....	18
2.1.2. The Principle of Proportionality .....	19
2.1.3. The Principle of Military Necessity .....	19
2.1.4. The Principle of Limitation .....	19
2.1.5. Principle of Humanity.....	20
2.2. Protected Persons .....	20
2.3. Protected Objects .....	21
2.3.1. Medical Objects.....	22
2.3.2. Works and Installations Containing Dangerous Forces.....	23
2.3.3. Objects Indispensable for the Survival of the Civilian Population .....	23
2.3.4. The Natural Environment.....	23
2.3.5. Cultural Property.....	24
2.3.6. Protected Zones and Localities.....	24
2.4. Methods of Warfare .....	26
2.4.1. Restricted and Prohibited Methods of Warfare.....	26
2.4.2. Ruses of War and Perfidy .....	27
2.4.3. Distinctive Emblems and Warning Signs.....	29
2.5. Means of Warfare .....	31

2.5.1. Treaties dealing with specific weapons for warfare on land.....	31
2.5.2. General Rules for the Use of Weapons .....	32
2.5.3. Restricted and Prohibited Weapons.....	33
2.6. Examination Questions.....	40
3. Enforcement of LOAC .....	41
3.1. The Creation of the International Criminal Court (ICC).....	42
3.2. Jurisdiction of the International Criminal Court.....	44
3.3. Individual Criminal Responsibility.....	46
3.4. Command Responsibility .....	47
3.5. Examination Questions.....	48
4. Legal Context of Military Operations.....	49
4.1. International Law in Military Operations .....	49
4.1.1. Application of International Humanitarian Law in Peace Operations .....	50
4.1.2. Application of Human Rights in Peace Support Operations and extra-territorial application of the European Convention on Human Rights.....	51
4.2. Types of Peace Operations .....	52
4.2.1. Conflict prevention.....	53
4.2.2. Peacemaking.....	53
4.2.3. Peacekeeping.....	53
4.2.4. Peace Enforcement .....	53
4.2.5. Peacebuilding.....	54
4.3. Use of Force in Peace Operations .....	54
4.3.1. Use of Force in Peacekeeping Operations.....	54
4.3.2. Use of Force in Peace Enforcement Operations.....	54
4.3.3. Rules of Engagement .....	55
4.3.4. Definition .....	55
4.3.5. ROE System.....	56
4.3.6. Soldier Card .....	57
4.3.7. Caveats .....	59

4.4.	Status of Forces Agreement .....	59
4.5.	Examination Questions .....	60
5.	List of Literature .....	61
5.1.	Articles and Books .....	61
5.2.	Conventions and Treaties .....	62
5.3.	Reports .....	63
5.4.	Judgements .....	63
5.5.	Agreements, Concepts and Doctrines.....	64

Introduction

This e-book was solely designed for the Erasmus+ Programme, Strategic Partnership „Creating international semester regarding military education needs for future officers in Europe“. According to the provisions in the Geneva Conventions and their Additional Protocols the dissemination of the Law of Armed Conflict is a legal obligation by incorporating its instruction in military teaching programs and by training the personnel on the principles to avoid breaches of these laws.

The chapters are correlated with the description of the Common Module “Law of Armed Conflict” as of 1st of September, 2016.<sup>1</sup> It is designed for self-study. The subject matters of the module description are discussed in self-contained chapters, allowing each to be studied independently of the others.

The subject matters discussed are the historical background of International Humanitarian Law, the definition and types of armed conflict, the sources of International Humanitarian Law, the basic principles of Law of Armed Conflict, protected persons and objects, methods of warfare, means of warfare, the enforcement of Law of Armed Conflict and the legal context in military operations.

The e-book makes no pretence of lengthily covering the complex area of International Humanitarian Law.

The author has produced this e-book within his duty. According to Austrian Copyright Law the author has the copyright and authorizes the use of this e-book until further notice for the Erasmus+ Programme, Strategic Partnership Project according to the signed contract between the involved institutions. The exploitation for other reasons is prohibited.

The legal opinions in this e-book need not necessarily represent the author’s opinion or the opinion of the Austrian Federal Ministry of Defence and Sports.

---

<sup>1</sup> <http://www.emilyo.eu/node/988> [12.12.2016].

Disclaimer on dissemination of the International Semester content

The entire set of materials necessary to run international semester by any EU and NATO member country military institution responsible for education of junior officers, will be stored on the servers of the Military University of Land Forces, Wrocław, Poland.

Due to the content of the developed e-books and e-learning material, it will be only available for the institutions in the EU responsible for officers' education. Developed e-books material consist of specialized instructions and knowledge not intended for disclosure to open public. Although it is not considered classified material, the courses of the International Semester are strictly dedicated to the specific audience planned to become military leaders of the armed forces of the EU and NATO member countries. Due to the nature of their specialized training, the Program of International Semester addresses some of sensitive parts of their entire military training and officership education. Therefore, disclosure of the entire content to the unspecified individuals or entities might affect the effectiveness of law enforcement and/or military forces of the EU and NATO member states.

All International Semester course/module descriptions are already published and available on MULF's website <https://www.awl.edu.pl/sp-outcomes/program-of-international-semester> and EMILYO website www.emilyo.eu

All interested institutions are to contact the General Tadeusz Kościuszko Military University of Land Forces (MULF) to receive login and password to the hosting server.

After the clearance procedures, MULF generates the login and password to access the package with the content of the developed International Semester materials.

All institutions responsible for education of junior officers, and interested in using the whole or part of the developed international semester program, including supporting materials, i.e. e-books, e-learning content, and more, are welcome to contact MULF anna.zamiarzolkowska@awl.edu.pl or marcin.bielewicz@awl.edu.pl by sending the request form.